Home Lumber Co. Purchases 7 Houses

B. P. Sergeant, manager of the Home Lumber Company, stated this week that they have recently purchased what was known as "Rat Row" consisting of seven houses back of their plant. These houses with the exception of two, will be torn down and moved. The ones left will be remodelled into modern residences. This is one of the best improvements Whitesburg has had and the place will no longer be known as "Rat Row" but "Sergeant Heights."

W. T. Hall of Jonancy, Ky., Dies Sept. 19

W. T. Hall, a brother of N. B. Hall of our town died Wednesday night, Sept. 13, 1945 at the Pikeville Hospital in Pikeville, Ky. He was a son of the late Benjamin Hall and Mary Rife Hall. He was formerly a native of this county and was born where Fleming now stands a little more than 70 years ago. He went to Pike County when quite a young man and married and raised a family there. He leaves one brother, (Bona) and two sisters yet living. His two sisters are Mrs. Julia Bentley of Jonancy, Ky., and Mrs. Pauline Holbrooks of Neon, Ky. He also leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his passing. Two of the boys were away in the U. S. Army at the time of his death. He had been a member of the Christian Church for more than twenty years and was a faithful member. No one remembers hearing him swear an oath.

He was laid to rest in the Joe Trivett Cemetery where also rests his father, mother and two sisters and a brother.

Batteries for Occupa- tion Forces Protected By Paper

American occupation forces entered Japan with batteries protected by bags and cartons made available by the collection of waste paper at home. This packaging keeps the batteries dry, withstanding the roughest sort of handling and weather conditions.

The Army learned its lesson in the importance of keeping batteries dry during the invasion of Guadalcanal when a large number of batteries packaged simply in cartons and wooden boxes were found to be dead and useless when they hit the shore.

So the Signal Corps developed a package that consists of a paper-board carton specially treated to withstand moisture and a protective bag made of laminated kraft fiber, lead foil, cellophane and bond paper. The bag will not deteriorate at temperatures ranging from 40 to 150 degrees Fahrenheit. Before us the bags are checked carefully for pinholes and air leaks to insure a continuous unbroken surface.

In many of the Japanese cities, power plants were knocked out by the terrific bombing attacks and until these plants are repaired and placed in operation the only source of electric power will be the batteries brought to the islands by the occupation forces. Waste paper collected by the folks at home makes it possible to supply the protective wrappings for these batteries.

TED COOK IS LIBERATED O. K. SAYS REPORT

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cook received word this week that their son, Ted Cook who has been a prisoner of the Japs for more than three years had been liberated and was O. K. Whitesburg people were all rejoicing along with the family, as Ted was one of the best loved boys in the town. He is a graduate of Whitesburg High School and was captain of the football team while in school. He also has another brother, Amos Cook, somewhere in the European theatre.

Bennie Holbrooks has been liberated and it is felt he is O. K. The family has had no direct communication from him or from the War Dept., but a feature story in some of the leading papers told about a former Millstone school teacher, telling how glad he was to be liberated and how cruel the Japs had been. Since Bennie was the only former school teacher from Millstone, friends feel sure the story came from him.

Pfc. Delmas Sexton who was a prisoner in Manchuria has written his parents, Via the War Dept., stating that he expects to eat Thanksgiving dinner with them. His mother, Mrs. Octavius Sexton lives at Millstone, Ky.

RALPH ADKINS WILL BE HOME SOON

Just as we are about to go to press word reaches The Eagle that Ralph Adkins is well and O. K. and will be home soon. Ralph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Boaz Adkins of Whitesburg.

Mrs. Lee Moore, Mrs. Harry L. Moore and Mrs. John Adkins are spending this week in Lexington. Mrs. Lee Moore will be a delegate to a Woman's Club Conference for Health Project Leaders.

STATEMENT FROM ARTHUR DIXON, DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

I still hear it rumored occasionally that I am the candidate of this person or that person and that if elected I would be a tool in the hands of someone else. This is to inform those who are hearing such rumors that they are political propaganda intended deliberately to divert the minds of the good citizens of this county from the main issue involved in this race for County Judge. In last week's issue of The Eagle my opponent mentioned something about political stodge and political football. This remark was made for the same purpose.

I am not now, never have been and do not expect to be dictated to as to the policies I expect to pursue if I am elected your County Judge. Those who know me personally know that I cannot be handled as has been indicated by these whisperings. I do not have any powerful evil influences supporting my candidacy. I have not catered to them in the past and therefore am not obligated to them now.

Within a week or so I shall issue my pre-election statement, setting forth some of the real issues involved in this race, and in the meantime I suggest to my many supporters that they pay no attention to political propaganda — the things which are intended to divert them from supporting me in this race.

Sincerely yours,
—ARTHUR DIXON.

Whitesburg Lion's Club Notes

The regular meeting of the Whitesburg Lion's Club was held at the Methodist Church Thursday, Sept. 13th, with Lion Cossie Quillen in charge. Cossie, as previously promised, came through with a highly interesting program presenting a treat to music lovers with the Big Roar quartet consisting of Lions K. E. Hill, Lexie Potter, Woodford Webb and Carl Breeding groaning out two melodious numbers and highlighted with Lions Pollace Fields, local high school coach, as speaker of the evening, with "Supervised Recreation in the Small Town" being his subject.

Lion Fields outlined the methods used by other towns in this vicinity in organizing and maintaining a recreation program for young people and explained the benefits derived by each and every person both old and young in any community in which an organized program exists, not only in stronger minds and bodies for our children, safe, clean and wholesome play, but as an instrumental aid in combatting juvenile delinquency which is so prevalent in our country today. All members present thoroughly enjoyed Lion Fields' talk and agreed that every effort would be made to organize such a program in Whitesburg in the immediate future.

Mr. Myrel Brown of the Letcher County School Dept. presented their plan to survey all Letcher County Schools with valuable prizes being awarded to the three outstanding according to various merits required and each Lion present made a contribution of $1.00 for these awards.

A committee consisting of Lions Herman Combs, Cossie Quillen, and Elcaney Potter, was appointed to meet with the City Council at their next regular session to discuss the possibility of installing parking meters in Whitesburg in an effort to raise money to sponsor several projects already under consideration which are greatly needed by our town.

(by Claude S. Spowls, Exec. Sec'y. Disabled ExService Men's Board 209 Walton Building, Lexington, 9, Ky.)

INCOME TAX FOR RETURNEES

The Judge Advocate General's Office of the War Department announces that under an amendment to Treasury regulations all returning Army personnel have an additional two months in which to meet Federal income tax obligations. Formerly, such obligations had to be met within 3 1-2 months after a man's return. Under the new regulations, due dates for filing returns or declarations and for paying tax or estimated tax are automatically postponed until 5 1-2 months after the serviceman returns to the continental U. S., not counting the calendar month in which he returns.

There is a further postponement if a man leaves the U. S. again before the 5 1-2 months expire. Thus, many overseas veterans redeployed to the Pacific, even though passing through the States, won't have to worry about Federal tax returns and payments until they get back from the Pacific. The 5 1-2 month period is allowed all personnel returning to this country after December 31, 1944.

HOLD INSURANCE

All World War II veterans are urged to hold on to their insurance after separation from service. In many cases the Government affords Life Insurance for those individuals who, upon return to civil life, may find themselves uninsurable under commercial life insurance requirements. We suggest that the veteran continue to carry his policy in full with the Eight Year Level-Premium Term Plan, after discharge. When he becomes situated in civilian life and can better determine his financial status, then he should convert his policy to one of the three plans offered by the Veterans' Administration. Veterans desiring to convert their policies should contact either this office or the Field Secretary during his next visit to the county, for assistance.

BENEFITS FOR KENTUCKY VETERANS

A booklet entitled "Benefits for Kentucky Veterans" has been prepared by this office and may be had, free of charge, upon request.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Day announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pearl Day, to Mr. Nehemiah Hogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Hogg. The date for the wedding has not been set.

Fleming Pirates Defeat Cumberland Redskins

Fleming High Pirates, composed of six lettermen and five promising rookies, defeated Cumberland Redskins, rated one of the best teams in the Cumberland Valley Conference, 7 to 0 on September 8th.

The lineup of Fleming is: Ed Perry, L. E. Hargis Houston, L. E. Bill Craft, L. G. Charles Whitaker, C. Bobbie Burkich, R. G. Eugene Johnson, R. G. Henry Edd Wright, R. E. Jimmy Yonts, L. H. Hoover Dawahare, R. H. Joe Pass, L. F. Jack Strunk, R. F.

Those who are showing up well in practice are Archie Potter, Clifford Potter, Edward "Buddy" Stapleton, John "Junior" Holbrooks, Lester Craft, Clarence Beckett, Johnny Evans, and Billy Adkins.

The Pirates are scheduled to meet the Danville Admirals on Sept. 21 on the Danville gridiron.

Party Given Honoring Pfc. Stamper Collins

Mr. Lewis E. Harvie entertained at a dinner party on Monday evening at Mother Craft's including Pfc. and Mrs. Stamper Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Collins, Jr., Miss Hester Day and Mr. Walter Kries.

J. Walter Greeps Addresses Local Rotary Club

J. Walter Greeps of Lexington was the principal speaker at the Whitesburg Rotary meeting at Mother Craft's Restaurant.

Mr. Greeps spoke on Rationing and the Importance of Price Control. He stressed the need of our keeping alert and "holding the line" on prices we are supposed to pay now and demonstrated what it would mean for prices to get out of control. He said, among other things, that "Rationing is about to come to an end, but not necessarily the shortage which can easily mean run-away prices and inflation." Several fine comments were heard in regard to his excellent talk. Mr. J. D. Maggard, chief clerk of the local rationing board was also a guest of the club.

After hearing Mr. Greeps' message, it seems that everyone should consider before paying extortionate prices. Paying too much for value received can easily mean inflation and likewise another depression worse than the last one.

Miss Eunice Bentley, who is attending Berea College, spent the week end at her home.

University of Kentucky Law Student Writes Letter in Behalf of Harry M. Caudill, Democratic Nominee for County Court Clerk

Seco, Kentucky

Being a citizen of Letcher County, and a student of law, I am greatly interested in securing efficient administrative officers to manage our County's affairs for the next four years.

I personally know one candidate for a County office, Harry M. Caudill, who is seeking the office of County Court Clerk. I have known Mr. Caudill for the past eight years, two of which we spent together while attending the University of Kentucky.

During this time I have had ample opportunity to observe Mr. Caudill and am convinced of his honesty and integrity and believe him to be a trustworthy person.

Mr. Caudill and I have studied Law together and I know him to be a well educated person who is capable of handling any and all of the laborous tasks he would face as Clerk of our County Court.

Not only is Mr. Caudill a person well qualified to handle this office as it now exists; but being the progressive, forward looking person I know him to be, he would handle the office in a courteous, businesslike manner, making any changes he found necessary to place this County on a par with, or on a plane above, the other Counties of the Commonwealth.

Sincerely yours,
ROBERT D. PRESTON.

OCCUPATION OF JAPAN.

Current opinion seems to hold that American troops will have to occupy Japan for at least a year. Thus far the Japanese government has fulfilled the conditions set out in the articles of surrender, signed two weeks ago on board the MISSOURI. Yokohama and Tokyo have been occupied by considerable forces of men. It is estimated, however, that there may be as many as 2,000,000 Japanese soldiers in the home islands that will have to be disarmed and their equipment taken over. That will be a huge task, since to date only a few more than 100,000 American soldiers have been landed in the Japanese home islands only a few other places, such as naval bases have been thus far occupied. The ships at those bases have been ordered moved to Tokyo bay where they will be under the observation of the American fleet. Thus we must not be impatient if it requires time for report to come in of the complete occupation of the Japanese home islands, not to say anything of the outlying Pacific islands. At least 500,000 American troops will have to be moved there before much more of the Japanese homeland can be occupied.

On Tuesday, Admiral Tojo, former premier, who instigated the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, only succeeded in severely wounding himself when he tried to commit suicide. Blood transfusions by American doctors saved his life so that, as one of the chief war criminals he might later be tried before an Allied court. Gen. MacArthur has notified the Japanese government that he wanted it to arrest and turn over to him a long list of high officers who have been charged with the responsibility for the outrageous treatment given to Allied prisoners of war in their hands. Some have been arrested; others are reported as having taken their own lives.

In the Philippines, on Saturday, it was reported that Gen. Homma, who conquered the Philippines, and the Filipino puppet president, Jose Lualaba, were among those taken into custody. Practically all the Japanese troops in the Philippines have now surrendered. Most of those in the other Pacific Islands have either surrendered or have agreed to do so at times specified by Gen. MacArthur. In Korea, the American thus far has been so small that Gen. MacArthur has had to leave the administration of the government in the hands of Japanese officials. That action aroused a storm of protest from the Koreans who expected that they would immediately take over the government of Korea. But the Japanese rule had lasted half a century, so that there was no recognized Korean leadership, only innumerable factions. None had other than an underground resistance organization. Thus the Koreans have constituted so far only a problem. They are enthusiastic over the end of Japanese rule and impatient to actually rule themselves.

PEARL HARBOR INVESTIGATION.—This week Congress created a ten man committee and authorized it to make a thorough investigation of the Pearl Harbor disaster of Dec. 7, 1941. Senator Barkley of Kentucky, has been named chairman of the Joint Committee composed of six democrats and four Republicans. This investigation is not to be confused with the court martialing of Gen. Short and Admiral Kimmel. If this committee conducts a thorough and non-partisan probe and avoids any suggestion of playing partisan politics, it will have served a good purpose. The original investigation by the Roberts Committee appointed by President Roosevelt and the army and navy investigations produced reports which have not been considered to have told the whole truth. One was of course a war time report which for security reasons could not disclose the full extent of the damage. The other and recent reports were critical of Gen. Marshall and Cordell Hull. Some Republicans have recently charged that Pres. Roosevelt was also responsible with them. Whatever the truth may be this committee should make it public.

THE KOREAN QUESTION.—Few results could be more natural than the apprehensiveness of Koreans over the decisions by American military authority in the Pacific to allow Japanese officials to remain in authority under American control in southern Korea.

Added to this situation, the occupation of the northern part of the country by the Russians only complicates the outlook of the situation to the Koreans. Perhaps the statement of the American military government that there is no political organization in Korea capable of assuming the responsibilities of this task could be more easily accepted by the Koreans if the Russians in the North had not already replaced Japanese officials with Koreans. Added to these complications are the different systems of the Americans in the South and the Russians in the North, which must necessarily interrupt some of the interior relations within the country and which cannot but arouse distrust among Koreans in both the North and the South.

Another cause for Korea's unwillingness to be content with the American statement is the existence of three political Korean factions, each claiming to represent the people. Since it is not customary for the liberator to retain the oppressor over the oppressed—it was not done in France, Belgium, Greece, or elsewhere, even though these countries had their own differing political parties—the Koreans must naturally become dissatisfied with developments.

However all these things may be, the government at Washington seems to be in accord with the military decision. The Koreans may be right, but they must give the American military authority time to assure itself. There is a Korean Provisional Government in exile in Chungking, but it is unrecognized by the United States and other nations, and there is one Korean faction in America which has criticized the policy which allowed Russia to occupy a part of the country, while there is still another which has criticized the American retention of Japanese officials in the South.

Therefore the happiest course to be pursued at this time is that of gaining reliable information of Korean internal affairs as quickly as possible by the Americans and an exercise of trustful patience by the Koreans.

THE CHICKEN OF TOMORROW.—The contention of the National Poultry Association experts is that emphasis in recent years has been upon egg production without thought as to the ultimate fact that every chicken to be really profitable to the poultryman must go to market. But the more recent objective to develop a type of chicken which will not only possess high egg production but also mature rapidly and weigh enough to have a higher market value—either as an old hen or as a broiler or a fryer—recalls to our minds the nation-wide slogan of twenty years ago—"A Chicken in Every Pot."

In Lexington, Kentucky, on September 4 and 5, a committee of nine national poultry experts met to draw up specifications of the "Chicken of Tomorrow" under the chairmanship of D. D. Slade, of Lexington, secretary of the International Baby Chick Association. Said Mr. Slade, "The committee is setting up standards for a bird which will have a greater percentage of meat to the bony structure, a larger proportion of white flesh—in other words a chicken that will offer a greater degree of flavor and tenderness and contain more meat than ever before produced."

In step with this announced purpose, the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, to interest breeders in developing a super-meat chicken, has provided a prize fund of $8,000 for the next three years. Such a development, when achieved, will be in line with two of the most recent outstanding developments of the poultry breeding science—the broad-breasted turkey and the small-size turkey.

These scientific developments mean that to successful breeders, fortunes will be in sight. Especially for those breeders fortunate enough to obtain that prize stock of chickens will there be more money than has ever been for chicken breeders before. Another advantage which may accrue to the lot of poultrymen the country over is the increased poultry and egg production resulting from the recent meat shortage. It may mean a chance to hold the market which the war-time beef and pork shortage created for chickens and eggs, for now instead of a chicken in every pot there is wanted "MORE Chicken in Every Pot."

A FISH AND GAME PUBLICATION.—The Kentucky Game and Fish Commission at its meeting in August authorized publication of a periodical as the official organ of the Division of Game and Fish and Earl Wallace, director of the Division of Game and Fish stated that it would be the aim of the Division to publish the first issue in about two months, which would be sometime in the latter half of October, and later, if the experiment proved successful, to publish the magazine monthly.

It is to be hoped that such an organ can be successfully published and circulated. Since fish and game conservation is now necessary, a well-organized department of conservationists is inevitable, and general understanding and mutual interest between the department and the lovers of these out-of-door spots cannot be better promoted than by a live up-and-going publication of this sort. To the hunter and the fisherman the organ will be a continuing source of valuable information, and to the Division of Game and Fish it will be a means of imparting information and co-ordinating the interests of both the Division and the out-of-door sportsmen in Kentucky. Such an achievement will not only reduce the number of infractions against the fish and game laws but will also breed a sportsman-like respect for the entire conservation program.

The Commission fixed the maximum allowance for the publication at $16,000 annually, and Wallace estimated that the cost of the publication would not exceed 7 per cent of the Division's revenue. If a good monthly sportsman's magazine can be published within these limits, the achievement should be well worth its cost, for it will go far toward building a genuine "Kentucky Out-of-Doors."

To The Men and Women of Letcher County

The war is over. We have won a great victory—a victory over the most aggressive and evil forces ever to appear upon the earth, a victory for the peace of the world, a victory for humanity, a victory for Christianity. In this time of tumult and celebration we pause and bow our heads in utter reverence to Almighty God, the Giver of all good things, for that victory. We pause in prayer for those who cannot return, and gratefully acknowledge a debt to them that is not humanly possible in any way to repay. We pray for those who have returned, and will yet return, broken and beaten, to spend the remainder of their lives living the sacrifices they have so willingly made. We promise them now that never shall they be forgotten—for to forget those who have made these sacrifices is to forget the horrors of war and lay down the bars for a recurrence of war, a war even more horrible than we have now experienced.

Those of us who have been privileged to survive, to return to those we love and cherish, now turn our thoughts to those loved ones and rejoice at the thought of soon being with them to remain always. We rejoice in the thought that now the brave mothers, fathers, wives and sweethearts may once again be free from the worry, the fear and the sleepless nights, and the loneliness that has dogged their every hour these many months just past. Worry and fear for their boys in all parts of the world, the boys who have been living, fighting and dying in the mud and stench of Europe, or the steaming tropics of the islands of the vast Pacific.

We must all be thankful that we are a nation so constituted that we can arise on a bright December morning, peaceful country with no malice in our hearts toward anyone, and withstand the shock of a treacherous sneak attack that destroyed the major units of our fleet. A nation that in only 46 months converted itself into the world's greatest fighting machine—with an army unconquerable by any enemy against any odds, and a Navy greater than all the combined navies of the rest of the world. We must be thankful for and proud of the spirit of these forces. We must be thankful and proud of the men who had the patriotic spirit of great Americans to "pull up their stakes" and move to other states to produce the implements of war. We must be proud of the women who were willing to lay down their home chores and work at man's work, shoulder to shoulder with their men. We must be proud of the old men and sick men who produced food on the farms with insufficient help, who went back into the bowels of the earth and produced coal for the fuel of the war plants. We ARE proud of all these men and women who while they worked carried with them the worries for their scattered loved ones and the cares of the world. But for the true American spirit in every man and woman the job could not have been done. But that spirit did prevail and the fight is over.

The war is over but the burden of peace rests with us. We must preserve the peace with equal vigor. We must face all the problems of reconversion from the greatest fighting nation to a peaceful but firm nation with the same spirit of cooperation we had in converting from peace to war after Pearl Harbor. Every returning service man will have some problem—some the problem of completing their education, some of securing employment, either new jobs for those who entered the service before they had ever worked at steady employment because of their youth, or a change in employment by reason of training received while in service. Many will have the problem of establishing new independent businesses; most all in securing a home, a small tract of land, a chance to live in peace and security and forget the horrors of their experiences. Many will be entitled to, and forced to rely upon, pensions for wounds, diseases, and weakened conditions created by reason of the great service they have rendered.

Every worker will have his problems of uncertainty of employment, of changing jobs, of moving his family, of any number of readjustments. But unemployment must not occur—full employment with an ever increasing standard of living and education and recreational advantages must be guaranteed. A nation that can accomplish so much and overcome the great tasks forced upon us by foreign countries, in which we stood to gain nothing of a material nature, can and must overcome the simpler domestic problems of unemployment and scarcities and of even the fear of unemployment and the fear of scarcities of essentials needed for a full and free life. Our American spirit is the one thing that must be used as a basis for this freedom in our pursuit of peace and the maintenance of that peace.

One cannot live with the fighting men overseas, on the islands of the Pacific or in the countries of Europe without realizing the problems confronting us on our return, without thinking of the problems belonging to all of us in returning to our pre-war lives.

I am Howes Meade, a lawyer from the hills of Kentucky. My father was Lloyd G. Meade and I am the grandson of Henry S. Howes. My family has lived in these hills for over 150 years. I am married and have one child, a daughter 7 years old. I was practicing law when we became engulfed in war. The day after Pearl Harbor I volunteered for the Army. I was rejected but continued to volunteer and was received by the Navy in 1943, and went on active duty immediately.

I have been overseas now many months and I am, at the date of this publication, still overseas. Due to the fact that I cannot be on the grounds at this time I must deviate from the usual custom of building through personal contacts my candidacy for the Republican Nomination for Congress in August, 1946. I wish to announce now that candidacy which must be carried on, at the present time, by way of the newspapers and the mails. When I am returned to civilian life, after the termination of my services, I will get out and see the people. I want to shake the hand of every man and woman in the Seventh Congressional District. I have a lot to say to the people of my district and I have the youth and vigor to get out and say it. I will make a most active campaign.

I was born 33 years ago in the Happy Hollow section of Paintsville, Johnson County, Kentucky. I attended the public schools, Mayo College, and was graduated from the Kentucky Military Institute in 1929. After my graduation I enrolled in the Western Kentucky State Teachers College at Bowling Green and left during the height of the depression and accepted employment in the Second National Bank of Paintsville, Kentucky. For a number of years I was the manager and auctioneer at the stock yards in Paintsville. In 1936 I resumed my college studies at the University of Louisville, where I was an honor student, and was graduated from its School of Law in 1939. I have been very active in my church, The First Methodist in Paintsville, serving on its official board and as president of the Men's Bible Class. I have been active in civic work as president of the Kiwanis Club, and for a number of years as chairman of the Red Cross Drives. I have been a life long Republican and a party worker since before I was old enough to vote. I have served as campaign chairman in Presidential and Congressional races.

To the farmers I offer a long and substantial friendship in the development of our mountain farms and in the daily swapping and trading of livestock.

My father was a member of the United Mine Workers and I have defended the miners and other workers in the local, state and Federal courts. I have never represented a corporation in any case against a workingman and never will.

To the returning service men I offer a common understanding of our present and future problems that has been thoroughly instilled during our service.

To all I offer my legal and business training and experience, coupled with youth and the energy that goes with youth, plus an iron bound determination that our hard earned peace shall not now be marred by an economic set back such as followed the last war. We have earned prosperity and we shall have it.

I know the problems confronting the farmers, the miners and the returning servicemen. I believe in doing something about them other than just talking. These problems can best be dealt with through the medium of a Congressional Office. I will be a candidate for that Congressional Office.

THE PROBLEMS OF PEACE BELONGS TO ALL OF US JUST AS DID THE PROBLEMS OF WAR.

I will greatly appreciate hearing from anyone and everyone and will promptly answer any and all letters received. Letters addressed to me at my home address at Paintsville, Ky., will be forwarded to me via my Fleet Postoffice address.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. R. F. McClure and Mrs. McClure. The house was attractively decorated with yellow roses and white gladioli. A Personal Account of Service of 1st Lt. Orell Collins

I went overseas as a First Pilot of a B-24 (Liberator), and my trip across was by boat, a very large convoy. It took 14 days to get to England, where I was assigned to the 44th Heavy Bombardment Group of the 8th Air Force. I flew 36 heavy bombing missions over Germany and I have seen most every town in that country, even though I was usually about 5 miles above the ground.

After finishing my bombing tour (36 missions), my crew was sent home and I was put in a weather squadron as a Weather Scout for the 8th

Air Force. After the war was over I helped evacuate prisoners of war from Germany and hauled food to the Dutch, who were practically starving.

I have seen several of the big towns such as London, Stockholm, Berlin, and Paris, but believe me, this burg of ours is kinda hard to beat. I flew my own ship back home and brought 20 men with me. I took off from Valley, Wales and landed at Lagers Field, in the Azores Islands, 10 hours later. From there I headed towards Newfoundland and 4 hours out of Newfoundland an engine went out, but I made it in safely to Gander Field, Newfoundland. I was there 5 days while a new engine was being installed and some other minor repairs done. Had lots of fun trout fishing while there—one afternoon I caught 27 speckled trout—that's pretty good for me.

I flew from Newfoundland to Bradley Field, Conn., where I left my ship and the passengers. I got my 32 days leave, then went back to Camp Atterbury, Indiana, and was discharged on points.

While overseas I was promoted to 1st Lt. was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross Air Medal, with four Oak Leaf Clusters, Unit Citation, and three Battle Stars to the ETO Ribbon. Now that I am a civilian again I think I am going back to school and one thing I can say for sure—"I'm glad to be back and see it all over."

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Webb were Bap. H. G. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson (Maud Webb) who are at Clovis Army Air Base, New Mexico. Capt. Wilson has returned recently from one and one-half years service in the China-Burma-India Theater.

Return From Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Venters

have returned after several days' tour through Canada, and many interesting places in the United States.

They visited two of the seven wonders of the world—Mammoth Cave and Niagara Falls, both American and Canadian Falls—which they say words can't express their beauty.

At night the Falls are illuminated with all colors of the rainbow, up until 11:00 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Venters took a boat ride around the Falls, where every one had to wear raincoats and rain hats. They also went under the Falls wearing rubber boots and rain coats and hats. Another thrilling ride they took was across Niagara river on an Aero Car, drawn through the air on a cable.

They report the country through Canada is beautiful—their chief crops are tobacco, peaches, grapes, and tomatoes, which were so plentiful, tomatoes were purchased for one cent (1c) each, the size of a soup bowl.

Following are some of the larger cities in the U. S. They either passed through or spent the night:

Louisville, Indianapolis, Ind., Chicago, Detroit, Niagara Falls, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y., Erie, Penn. Also Cleveland, Ohio and Cincinnati where they saw an interesting baseball game between Cincinnati and New York.

They completed their sight-seeing by visiting Natural Bridge State Park in Kentucky. They report a wonderful vacation and one worth remembering.

Ned Day Returns From "Bull Hole"

Day, Ky.,
Sept. 15, 1945.

To the Citizens of Letcher County:

Yesterday I was in Whitesburg for the first time in several days. Some of my friends asked where I had been and what I was doing since the primary election. One commented that he had not seen any statement from me since the primary. Another asked how it felt to be defeated and what I intend to do in the final election.

The fact is I went directly to the "Bull Hole" about noon on Monday following the primary election. The counting of votes had not been completed at that time. I staid one week and thought that was enough to serve. When I came out and learned how badly I was beaten I went back and staid an extra ten days. Since then I have been on the farm picking beans, saving hay, pulling fodder, hunting squirrels and enjoying life in general.

Incidentally we had a grand time at the "Bull Hole". Those of us who made the trip could console each other by the fact that there were many more in our group than there were in the group of nominees who will be slashing at each other until the final election. Also we agreed that it was better to make the trip with a large happy group in August than to hit the cold mountain hail with a few broken-hearted delegates after the November election.

At the Bull Hole everybody likes each other—Democrats, Republicans and all. They kid and comfort one another. After a short stay they begin to lay plans for their campaigns four years hence. We formed a Society of "Bull Holers" and agreed to stick together in our future campaigns. We told stories, played games, discussed war, national politics and many other things to pass away the time. Some one made the remark, I believe it was Noah Gibson, that he wished Kirby Ison were there so we could have religious services.

Now that I am back on normal routine I do not feel any different since the defeat than I felt before. Being defeated has not changed my outlook on life nor my politics in any way. I worked hard in the campaign and made a serious effort to win. I wanted to be successful. I did not interfere in the other races and I tried to play the game fair. I presented my plea, including my qualifications and the fact that I had been a life long hard-working Republican, to the voters and asked their support.

My successful opponent Astor Collins, had been a registered Democrat all of his voting life until a few months prior to the primary election. The law requires the registration books to be closed from 59 days before to 10 days after the primary or general election. The County Court Clerk opened the books and permitted Mr. Collins to Change his registration to a Republican only 12 days prior to last general election, thus raising a serious question as to whether he is a legally registered Republican. These facts were made known to the Republican voters and yet they nominated him over me with a very substantial majority.

I am a strong believer in the Democratic way of life—and in the majority rule. I accept the outcome of my race in the primary election in the best of spirits and I will support every Republican nominee on the ticket in November.

I am everlastingly grateful to the more than eleven hundred Republicans who voted for me and especially to those who worked so hard in my behalf. I have no ill feeling toward any one for voting against me. With malice towards none and good will towards all I remain a true and faithful Republican.

—Edward P. (Ned) Day.

Support of REA Is Pledged

New York, Sept. 17.—Claude R. Wickard, Administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration, has pledged the support of REA-financed electric cooperatives in the nationwide campaign to obtain community-canned food for overseas relief.

In a statement issued today at national headquarters of the Community Canning Program for War Relief, Mr. Wickard said: "I endorse heartily the drive for community canning for the relief of peoples in the liberated areas of Europe. REA-financed cooperatives will, I am sure, add their support as leading community groups and will make their electric resources available wherever possible to community canning projects."

As former Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, and first War Food Administrator, Mr. Wickard predicted, "Food will win the war and write the peace." Dan A. West, Executive Director of the Community Canning Program for War Relief, said, "Now we know that food can help keep the peace won."

Mr. West pointed out that the canning program would be completed in twelve states this month, but will continue through October in 27 states, throughout November in six states, and will be extended much later in New Mexico, Arizona, and Florida. Crops in Florida will be harvested and canned from October till April.

Vegetables, juices and unsugared fruit are being canned in tin for the program at supervised school and community custom canneries, and in church social rooms and home kitchens. UNRRA will ship the donations overseas for free distribution without any discrimination.

UNCLE RILEY WEBB VISITS COUNTY SEAT

Uncle Riley Webb of Kona was a very pleasant and interesting visitor in the County Seat on Tuesday. Uncle Riley stated that he will be 81 years old this Friday, Sept. 21. He is a son of the late Henry M. Webb, veteran of the Civil War. Mr. Webb likes to talk of the old time happenings in this county and the rapid changes that have taken place. For instance he remembers when hundreds of acres of land sold for only $75. Also he likes to tell of the feuds and many other things which happened in the days of yesterday. While here Mr. Webb renewed his subscription to The Eagle. He states that he has read the paper continuously since it was started in 1907. He was accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ellis Webb also of Kona.

To Dispose of Government Surpluses

Cincinnati, Ohio. — The throttle in the Department of Commerce's three-fold drive to dispose of huge Government surpluses, while at the same time protecting the legitimate dealer and saving as much money for the taxpayer as possible, opened several notches this (Monday) morning with the offer of merchandise to wholesalers, jobbers, retailers, and chain and mail order houses in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, and West Virginia.

Announcement of the offer was made by Rowland D. Schell, Regional Director of the Office of Surplus Property. Items offered included steel and wooden folding chairs, Navy raincoats and pea jackets, utility stools, pipes and pouches, automotive parts and flashlight cases.

In announcing the sale of this merchandise Mr. Schell said:

"These are the first of a series of offerings which reflect our policy of fixing prices on surplus merchandise at levels which, we hope, will protect legitimate business, stimulate employment and production, and at the same time realize maximum salvage for the taxpayer whose equity is fundamental."

"Dealers throughout the four states which compose our Region Four will receive descriptive literature on automotive parts tomorrow (Tuesday) morning, and similar material on the other items the following day. All of the merchandise is new and in first class conditions, and quantities are sufficient to assure a share for any legitimate dealer who orders promptly."

"While we wish to achieve maximum salvage for the taxpayer, we realize very clearly the necessity for protecting the small as well as the large business man. Our prices and our policies have been made accordingly."

"In setting up these sales we have cut red tape wherever possible, and under present procedure it is not necessary for a dealer to engage in extended correspondence with the Department, or to fill out endless forms to validate his order. He may use the order forms we send him, or address his orders on his own forms to 704 Race Street, Cincinnati."

Guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Ison were her brother, Sgt. Clarence Huff and his bride, from Joplin, Missouri. Mr. Huff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Huff. Although Sgt. Huff married in Missouri, he married a girl whose parents were from Letcher County. A Kentucky girl, after all.

Rabies Conquest Is Seen As Near

Welcome news for the owners of Kentucky's 205,000 dogs is contained in a message received by this paper from the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York, in connection with the observance throughout the country this week as National Dog Week.

Conquest of rabies, that ancient and dreaded disease, is close at hand, states the Center. The necessary scientific knowledge is already available and only the full cooperation of the dog-owning public is needed before this disease is eradicated once and for all.

According to the Center, the answer to rabies lies not in any one remedy, but rather in a combination of several precautionary measures. Stated in their simplest terms, here are the conditions which must exist before rabies can be permanently licked:

1. Require all dogs to be kept on leash when off the owner's premises. (A dog on leash is not likely to get into trouble with other dogs or be bitten.)
2. Preventive vaccination against rabies annually of all dogs who cannot be so confined. (Experiments with once-a-year vaccination have proven most encouraging.)
3. Rounding up all stray dogs. (Strays—dogs out of control and not likely to be vaccinated—are the principal sources of rabies infection.)

National Dog Week is the time for all good citizens to resolve to tackle the stray dog problem, says the Center. Stray dogs have been called the "gangster and hoodlums of the canine world", whose misdeeds are a reflection on all dogs. Yet every stray dog is the product of the neglect and thoughtlessness of his owner. Many persons who have over a "cute" puppy they purchased for a trifle or received as a gift, think nothing of turning it out to fend for itself as it grows older. This is cruelty in its worst sense, and a rank injustice as well as a menace to those who take care of their pets properly. It is unnecessary cruelty, too, in that in practically every community responsible individuals and humane agencies stand ready to receive such unwanted animals and care for them while attempting to find new homes for them.

Order of QUARANTINE

It having come to the attention of the Court that there exists within the borders of Letcher County, Kentucky, a wide-spread epidemic of Rabies (Mad Dog Infection) among the dogs within the county.

It is therefore ordered and Adjudged that a state of emergency exists, and for the protection of the public it is therefore ordered that a General Quarantine of all Dogs shall exist for a period of not less than 6 months from this date, or until such time as all danger of the epidemic has passed. All Dog Owners, within the confines of Letcher County are hereby notified and ordered to immediately, securely chain or confine their dogs away from the family or the public, for a period of not less than six months or until such time as they are notified that such dogs may be released from this Quarantine.

TO MY MOTHER
Mother dear just a line
To say that I'm O. K.
I would like to know if you are well
Or if you are blue today.

I am so far away from you,
But still my thoughts are there
With you and loved ones there For in my memory you are near.

You were my only stand-by
In sickness at my side
When our time comes to die
I hope with God we abide.

I have true comrades over here
But still my thoughts do roam
To loved ones that are very dear
And my mother dear at home.

The night is swiftly falling
On this island far away
But mother dear I hear you calling
Dear God bring my boy home some day.

I know you always pray for me
I know you are mighty swell
I pray that God will be by your side
And always keep you well.

The day has ended at last
And on my cot I lie
Asking God to forgive the past
And save me when I die.

Mother dear, I'll have to say good-bye
Until another day
Remember God is always nigh
And don't forget to pray.

Your loving son,

—Joseph.

"Unfinished Business" Is Slogan of Kentucky War Fund Drive

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 13—
"Unfinished Business" will be the slogan of the Kentucky War Fund drive for a goal of $1,406,375 which will be conducted from September 20 to October 20.

Challenging Kentucky to maintain its proud record of never failing our men in the armed forces, Dr. Frank L.
McVey, State campaign chairman of the Kentucky War Fund, yesterday announced the opening of the third and last National War Fund campaign, on next Thursday, September 20.

"From the beginning we have made it clear that the Kentucky War Fund is a temporary war-related organization dedicated to the cause of winning the war," said Dr.
McVey. "The war has ended but not its shadows and in those shadows are millions of our men still far from home and needing all the help we can send them to fight monotony and homesickness. To fail them now and not complete our job of seeing them through after they have completed their task and won 'he war, would be unworthy of our State."

To our men on guard duty in occupation zones, in Germany and Japan, the war "as gone stale, continued the chairman. They regard the job over and want to come home. To lift their morale, the military authorities have asked for an all-out expansion of the USO and USO-Camp Shows, and the United Seamen's Service for the American Merchant Marine. These are two of the service agencies dependent for support upon the success of the drive.

The return of 370,000
wounded men already in military hospitals here, has called for an expansion of USO Camp Show entertainment in this country.

Many of our prisoners of war now being slowly released from Jap prison camps are in such serious condition that their return home must be indefinitely postponed. During this time the War Prisoners Aid, a member agency of the National War Fund must stand by with emergency personal service, Dr. McVey said.

Only one of the War Fund's four agencies serving our men has been terminated by V-J Day, the American Field Service for the rescue of wounded under fire.

Referring to the American relief agencies for our allied countries in Europe and China, represented in the National War Fund, Dr. McVey said,
"V-J Day has not ended the war-created shortages among our allies. Starvation still outstays the enemy."

Believe It or Not

A ton of average freight by railroad moves one mile for less than a postal card; a passenger one mile for much less than a letter.

Surprising, but true! The railroad freight rate for an average ton per mile hauled is less than one cent; and the rate per passenger per mile is an average of about two cents.

The wear and tear on shoe leather for a mile walk would probably exceed the rail rate for an average ton of freight or a passenger for the same distance.

When some one says "high freight and passenger rates," consider the above facts. There's not a better bargain in the whole world than in U. S. railroad service.

Today, with high operating costs, freight and passenger rates per mile average 16% and 46% less, respectively, than 25 years ago.

Railroads are large, mass transportation agencies, efficiently operated as free and private enterprise, in a public service essential both in peace and war.

The "Old Reliable" wants to deserve your patronage and to continue to build a greater South.

Yellow Jackets
Are Winners

Under the excellent coaching and training of Follace Fields the Whitesburg High School Yellow Jackets are really playing some good football this season. They have played two games and won both by a good score. In fact they were so far ahead in each game that the second team had a chance to perform in a real game. The first game was played on September 8 against Loyall, and the score was 19-0. On September 14th, the Yellow Jackets met the Jenkins Cavaliers. Both games on the home field. The score against Jenkins was 53 to 0. The Jenkins team has only four experienced men this year, and were at a disadvantage there. The line-up follows:

Our Changing World

We are living in a new world or at least in a new order of things. Let's go back to the days when I was young and see the changes in that day and this.

Why, the doodle bugs are gone. When I was a boy I could go to an old rotten log and call them and they would come out. They could understand as well as I could, when I would stop calling them by name they would absolutely refuse to come out. The doodle bug was a gray bug. I could call them by some other name and they would refuse to come out or heed the call, but when I called "Doodle Bug" they would come out.

The whippoorwill would sit on the door steps and say whippoorwill, and whippoorwill, whippoorwill so lonesome that I couldn't keep from crying out, but too, all these are gone and so is the war.

The snow birds are gone too. And the old chicken-hawk which would cause the old hens and the women folk so much trouble. They are gone.

Well, there have been many changes if we could only know the whys and the wherefores. But World War No. II has caused many changes, that science fathers. They can invent the atom bomb that has stopped World War II. But Congresswoman Luce says there will be a war No. 3. I claim there will not be another war. The Bible says that the time will come when the Lion and the Lamb will lie down together in peace. This has reference to the human race. And the Millennium is drawing close. The Bible states that the Devil will be fastened down for a thousand years and that Christ will rule. When the year 2000 comes something unusual is going to happen. There are many people now living who will witness that time. Christ will rule and the Devil will be fastened down.

I for one would like to be here when there is no murder and no sin. No evil — just peace on earth. A heaven on earth for a thousand years. To think that there will be no more War.

Time brings many changes but War brings Hell on earth. Our soldiers often write and speak of the hellholes they have been in.

A STATEMENT
BY KIRBY ISON

I am reliably informed that it is being circulated over the County that Sam Bates is supporting me for County Judge of Letcher County. Now, I want the people of Letcher County to plainly understand that I have never solicited the support of Mr. Bates, neither do I welcome it. Holy Writ says: "How can two walk together except they be agreed." All the days of my life I have tried to be a law-abiding citizen, and in this campaign I have been advocating the need of old-fashioned honesty, righteousness and law enforcement in our County.

I have pledged to you citizens to do all that I possibly can as an official to destroy the seedbeds of crime regardless of where they may be found in our County or who the founders or promoters may be. I do not hesitate to brand S. J. Bates place as CHIEF of all the crime breeding places of our County. Here it is commonly reported we find murder, robbing, gambling, bootlegging, whoredom, pandering, drinking and crime of almost every nature having been committed.

In this campaign I have taken a firm stand against those things, and my philosophy is and will forever be to destroy and remove from the face of the earth these crime breeding places that are lying in wait for the youth of our land and the old as well.

Now, do you really think that Mr. Bates has become converted and become a lover but a believer in this kind of philosophy or does he still have his face set in the direction of the old familiar path of law violation. Be that as it may, when I become Judge, his dirty filthy place will be No. One on the list to be eradicated from the sight of our people.

I don't believe that this idea of pretended support of Mr. Bates really came from him in the first place. I think it must have come from a higher up for the purpose of fooling the good Citizens of this County, but I'm sure you are too wise to be led into foolery by such unethical political tricks. I have your confidence at heart, and I think I know what you will do on Nov. 6th.

Again I say, it's your duty to elect men to office who are not and will not be afraid to do right.

Respectfully,

—KIRBY ISON.
